

"If anyone is thirsty,
let him come to me and drink.
The one who believes in me,
as the Scripture has said,
will have streams of living water flow from deep within him."

What a blessing it is to meet with my church family each Sunday morning! I hope we have all come prepared to worship.

For several weeks now, we have let the book of James guide us in living a genuine faith all day, every day. This morning we will discover how to differentiate between the world's wisdom and Godly wisdom. We may believe ourselves to be wise, but do our actions and speech reflect a wisdom that pleases God? This is another way that we can self-diagnose our growth toward spiritual maturity.

I do hope that all Christ's followers exhibit the wisdom that is from above, especially before lost people who desperately need to see the difference the Savior has made in the lives of His people.
